

This is basicly correct. You can't really hear the finger-picking that good, but I think this is the right one. The other tabs on this site are good only these 2 strings that you need to pick didn't were in those other acoustic versions. So basicly I corrected a tiny bit in the finer-picking section. Anyways...

EDIT: This should be the Acoustic version. I forgot to put it behind the title of the song. Sorry for that, so if anyone can fix it, that will be appreciated.

Tuning is standard: EADGBE
No Capo
