

Looking Out
By Brandi Carlile
no capo

I heard this song a million times and liked it enough. But when I saw her perform it live and solo, I absolutely fell in love with it. Enjoy!

G Em C
I went out looking for the answers, and never left my town

G D
I'm no good at understanding, but I'm good at standing ground

G Em C
And when I asked a corner preacher, I couldn't hear him for my youth

G D
Some people get religion, some people get the truth

C G
I never get the truth, I never get the truth

Chorus

Bm C G
I know the darkness pulls on you, but it's just a point of view

D Am
When you're outside looking in, you belong to someone

C A
And when you feel like giving in, or the coming of the end

C G
Like your heart could break in two, someone loves you

G Em C
I laid a suitcase on my chest, so I could feel somebody's weight

G D
And I laid you to rest, just to feel the give and take

G Em C
I got a new interpretation, and it's a better point of view

G D
While you were looking for a landslide, I was looking out for you

C G
I was looking out for you, someone's looking out for you

Chorus

G Em C
I am afraid of crossing lines, I am afraid of flying blind

G D
Afraid of inquiring minds, afraid of being left behind

G Em C
I close my eyes, I think of you; I take a step, I think of you

G D
I catch my breath, I think of you; I cannot rest, I think of you

Em C G
My one and only wrecking ball, and you're crashing through my walls

D Am
When you're outside looking in, you belong to someone

C A
And when you feel like giving in, or the coming of the end

C G
Like your heart could break in two, someone loves you
